

I do not want the no call list laws changed in Indiana. No bank I do or do not do business with should have the right to call me against my wishes. Let Indiana residents make their own decisions on this topic and let Steve Carter do the job we elected him to do.

Leave the Law alone.